BEAVER DAM.

Oct. 30.—The Fairbanks special arrived in Beaver Dam on schedule time Saturday and was greeted by about 500 people, consisting mostly of Republicans, with a good sprinkling of Democrats. Mr. Fairbanks talked about 10 minutes—telling the people it would be to their interest to vote for Hughes. He was followed by Mr. Eugene Dalley, of Louisville. He seemed to have it in for Gov. Stanley. He was very profuse in his abuse of the Governor. He closed by saying he was in favor of a protective tariff. There was but little cheering by the crowd. Everybody seemed to be disappointed.

If the people will come to Beaver Dam the 2d of November and hear Hon. Wallace McKay, of Louisville, they will hear the political issues discussed from a business standpoint, in the interest of the people.

Mr. S. P. McKenney met with a painful accident while going to Centertown last week. His horse became frightened and ran over a bank—turned the buggy over and in some way broke the bone of his left heel, but at this writing he is doing very well.

Mr. Joe Tate's little boy, while playing at school one day last week, fell and broke his leg.

Byron Barnes is all smiles—another Democrat has arrived in his home. He weighs ten pounds. His name is Edward Foster. Says he will vote the 7th.

Mr. Berry Hawkins and Mrs. Andre Neighbors motored to Hartford Sunday afternoon where they were made man and wife.

Life is short in spite of the fact that it is full of longing.

WHICH WAY WILL YOU VOTE?

The WILSON WAY Means Peace

The Wilson Way

Around 20,000,000 happy firesides the fathers of America will gather this night with their unbroken family circle, with their children upon their knees and their wives by their side, happy and prosperous. Contrast this with the fathers, husbands and brothers of the Old World dying in the ditches, with the gloom and mourning in broken family circles, where hunger crouches and disease treads. If this be "evil and vacillating," God prosper it and teach it to the rulers of the old world.

—Hon. Ollie M. James, at St. Louis Convention.

The HUGHES WAY Means War

The Hughes-Roosevelt Way

What Roosevelt Would Do As Secretary of War and Dictator to Hughes

"I have been asked what I would have done if I had been President when the Lusitania was torpedoed," shouted the speaker. "I would instantly have taken possession of every German ship interned in this country, and then I would have said: 'Now, we will discuss, not what you will give, but what we will give back.'—Theodore Roosevelt in a speech at Battle Creek, October 2, 1916.

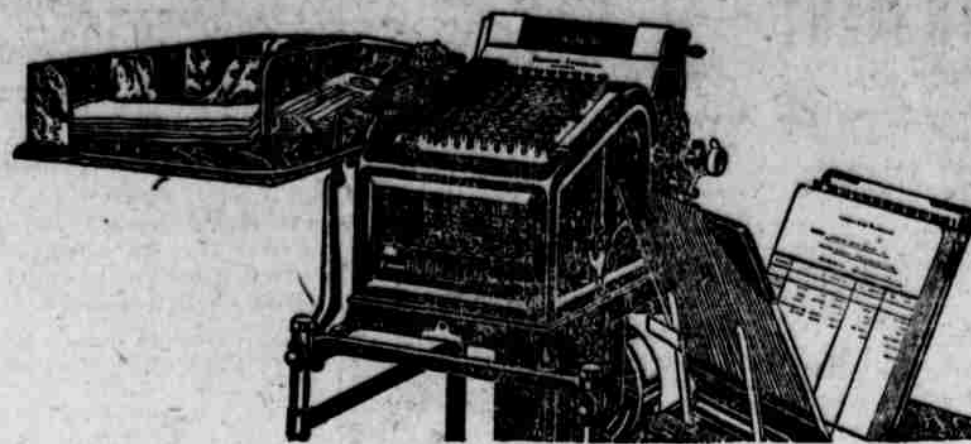

With Hughes as President, and Roosevelt as Secretary of War, we would today be taking part in the European war and sacrificing hundreds of thousands of our fathers and sons and piling up billions of dollars of debt, and all to accomplish less than Wilson got by diplomacy.

Better Service to You

We don't want you to think of the BANK OF HARTFORD just as a place to deposit your money, although of course we are glad to have you keep as large a balance with us as is possible.

It is our desire to render our patrons every service and accommodation that can reasonably be expected of us.

The Burroughs Bookkeeping Machine, which we have just added to our equipment, makes it possible for us to give you better service than ever before in the handling of your account.

By the machine method, your account is kept in balance all the time. If, as sometimes happens, you want a statement of your balance in a hurry, we can give it to you, including today's checks and deposits, in less than five minutes.

A neatly printed statement made out on the Burroughs goes to each depositor every month. The statement shows all checks and deposits and gives the balance of your account to date, taking the place of the tedious and unsatisfactory plan of calling in and balancing pass books.

The machine affords absolute protection against errors in figure handling. It can't make a mistake. You can always be sure that your machine-figured balance is correct.

The increased speed, accuracy and protection of this mechanical bookkeeping system, added to our thorough knowledge of good, consistent banking and business methods, makes it possible for us to offer you an improved service that is equal to that furnished by the country's most progressive banks.

CENTERTOWN.

Oct. 30.—Mr. Stillie Mason, who has been in the eastern part of Kentucky and Cincinnati for the past few weeks, is at home again.

The revival just closed at the Baptist church was one of more than usual interest. The earnestness of the Rev. Sam P. Martin, who did the preaching, seemed to be appreciated by most every one. The effect of it brought several converts who were baptized at Ross Ripple on Rough river; some joined the church by letter; others renewed in their desires to live better lives; the community in general must have obtained a higher conception of the way the Christ would have them live.

Mrs. Catherine Carter, a highly respected old lady, died here last Friday evening of senility, being in her 85th year. She was buried at West Providence church Saturday about 3 o'clock where her funeral was preached by the Rev. H. S. Wigginton. She leaves four daughters: Mrs. H. P. Brown, of Rockport; Mrs. Amanda Tichenor, of Prentiss; Mrs. Mattie Stewart, Mrs. Booth Swain, and John M. Carter, of Centertown, to mourn her loss. Her husband preceded her to the better land many years ago.

Mrs. S. W. Crowe and brother, Reggie McKenney, who have been to see their sister, Mrs. W. E. Brown, who has been ill for so long, are at home again. Mrs. Brown was some better at last accounts.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster McKenney are at the bedside of their daughter, Mrs. W. E. Brown, who has been dangerously ill for the past two weeks.

A party of young folks spent a pleasant outing at the locks on Rough river last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Stewart went to Beaver Dam last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Swain and daughter Pearl spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives and friends at Prentiss.

Misses Lydia and Lillian Quigg, Eva and Ethyl Morton, of Livermore, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Morton.

Quite a number of Centertown people attended the Sunday School Convention at Central Grove church yesterday, and all report a pleasant time with plenty to eat.

Mr. S. M. Dexter, who has been visiting his uncle, I. B. Dexter, of Thebes, Ill., for the past two weeks, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Ross spent Saturday night and Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brown, near Point Pleasant.

Miss Minnie Bean, who has been ill for several weeks, is thought to be some better at this time.

Mr. J. H. Kuykendall and family, of Route 1, will move across Rough river some time next week to reside. We regret very much to give up such an estimable family from our neighborhood, but wish them well.

RALPH.

Oct. 28.—The farmers here are very busy gathering corn and hauling coal.

Several from here attended the school fair at Fordsville Saturday, October 21.

Miss Leathel Patton visited Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Ralph, of Dundee, Saturday night and Sunday.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Ralph, who have been ill of diphtheria, are some better at this writing.

Mrs. J. L. Patton has been on the sick list this week.

Esq. J. L. Patton received an announcement of the arrival of a little daughter at the home of his brother, Mr. C. L. Patton, of Newburg, Ind., Oct. 17. It has been named Anna Mary.

Mrs. Mary F. Westerfield and children and Miss Hettie Gillian, of Adaburg, recently a girl.

Master Willie Patton, who has been out of school a few days on account of sickness, is able to be out again.

Mrs. Susie Wade, of Adaburg, spent Sunday with her brother, Mr. C. C. Moseley.

Mrs. Hendricks and son, of this place, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Roach, of Masonville, this week.

Mrs. George Midkiff, and children, of Canalon, Mo., are visiting her brother, Mr. Edward Ralph, and family.

OLATON.

Oct. 30.—Fine weather, and farmers are busy sowing wheat and gathering corn. The yield is pretty good—best crop for several years.

There seemed to be a very small crowd out to hear the Republican nominee for Vice President on his special car. If there is anything in the way the people talk—both Democrats and Progressives—it looks very much like a landslide for President Wilson.

Miss Maude Calloway, Centertown; Mrs. Lizzie Bennett and son, Hartford; Miss Myrtle Canan, Dundee; J. B. Canan and wife and grandson, Olaton, spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Foreman, Narrows. Mr. Foreman is quite sick of malarial fever.

Mr. Van Hurt has moved to Mr. Henry Stevens.

Mrs. Stevens is gradually growing weaker.

Rev. F. M. Farris is able to be out again.

Mr. Thomas Saltzman is preparing to move to a point near Deanfield.

We are expecting a large crowd out Saturday night, Nov. 4th, to hear Dr. B. F. Tichenor and F. L. Felix discuss the political issues.

Points To Wilson Victory.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—President Wilson, with 77,815 votes, to 60,013 for Hughes, has a clear majority of the 138,995 ballots so far cast in the nation-wide Presidential poll being conducted by the Chicago Examiner and one hundred associated newspapers throughout the country.

Senator Owen, of Oklahoma, replying to statements attributed to Theodore Roosevelt, declared at Phoenix, Ariz., that more foreigners were killed in Mexico during Taft's administration than had been killed under Wilson's.
